Bound by blood, I am evil
I am called the master deceiver
So long has my master kept me
So as not to destroy humanity

I pray for the day of destruction
Towards the scriptures' conclusion
For all eternity Scucca kept me
Into the circle of epiphany

Unto my hands the earth crumbles
Refrain me from my delusion
Unto my hands the earth crumbles
Refrain me from this delusion

Darkness falls among all humanity
My rotten stench creeps society
Crawling out the pits of the dungeon
No one can chain me in prison

A hundred thousand years of suffering
A million lashes given to the king
The crown of thorns that he wears on his head
My lord, it's useless, I am dead!

Unto my hands the earth crumbles
Refrain me from my delusion
Unto my hands the earth crumbles
Refrain me from this delusion
