Caused is the sin,
And all evil shall win,
Bleeding from within,
Deeply sinking in

The bottomless depths of pain
Where the hate becomes insane
My path is the one I choose to follow,
Which will bring me to my grave.

No one shall give - only greed is real
No one shall stand - only falling is real

No one shall love - only hate is real
No one shall live - only death is real

Everything that was ever meant
Is now worthless and forsaken
Helpless and abandoned,
Is how you will forever remain

LET THY CHAOS FOREVER REIGN UPON US!!!

Nothingness is what I feel,
And is everything I ever crave for...
