In your eyes I tried to be
The perfect man, that's just not me
My words controlled by doubt and fear
Your scream is all I ever hear
Look in the mirror all I see
The shattered man I used to be
Just shut your mouth and let me speak
My time is now, my time to leave

Cause you will be the death of me,
You will never let me go (I can't put up with your shit)
I can't go on this way
You will be the death of me,
You will never let me know (You fucking lied to me)
What is really going on

You sit so high you cannot see
Your pedestal will break for me
Come crashing down back to the start
An empty trust, a broken heart
The love I had has turned to hate
I broke the mold you help create
The freedom now is like a drug
That I can't seem to get enough

Why was I so wrong, now all we had is gone.

Cause you will be the death of me,
You will never let me go (I can't put up with your shit)
I can't go on this way
You will be the death of me,
You will never let me know (You fucking lied to me)
What is really going on
