Every road I've ever been down
Seem to take me to the wrong place
Every meaning which I lean on
Seem to crumble underneath my weight
They say that dreams will set you free
I guess well see

Wanna wake up
Wanna break up
Wanna scratch my eyes out of my head
Cause I'm tired
And I'm broken
So can I spend the rest of my life in bed
They say that pain can set you free
I guess well see

I don't care if dreams are out
So keep them buried under ground
So maybe while you count your cost
It sat around and everything is
Lost and low
I know
You're okay
I do believe
I'm saving you
Well I don't want to be
I do believe
That it will be okay
Okay

I don't care if dreams are out
So keep them buried under ground
So maybe while you count your cost
It sat around and everything is lost
