Get up again, Let's rise above
The emptiness, Of broken trust
We'll figure out, Just where to go
Let's rise up now, And let 'em know
We've had enough, can't take anymore
We've given all, we can break through
We've had enough, can't take anymore
We've given all, there's nothing left to prove
We must rise up, we must go!

Your hiding, getting deeper
Don't fight it, you'll never win
Your hiding, getting deeper
Don't fight it, you'll never win

Get up again, Let's rise above
The emptiness, Of broken trust
We've come so far, don't let me down
This world is ours, if we stand our ground
We've had enough, can't take anymore
We've given all, we can break through
We've had enough, can't take anymore
We must rise up, we must go!

Your hiding, getting deeper
Don't fight it, you'll never win
Your hiding, getting deeper
Don't fight it, you'll never win

You'll never win

Your hiding, getting deeper
Don't fight it, you'll never win
Your hiding, getting deeper
Don't fight it, you'll never win
