Don't turn away, let's start again, be different
I'll take away all the promises that I said
Don't hesitate or be afraid, you'll be ok
It's not too late to begin our lives again

And I'll give you one more try
Before I pass you by
Take one look in my eyes
This is our last time

I'll take away, all of the pain I caused today
I realize that I am the one to blame
So celebrate the enemy, has gone away
It's not too late to begin our lives again

And I'll give you one more try
Before I pass you by
Take one look in my eyes
This is our last time
