

Brandi Carlile

"If There Was No You"

Visit "If There Was No You" on MotoLyrics.com

When I see myself, I'm seeing you too
As long as I remember it I'm feeling like I knew
That my jokes aren't funny the truth isn't true
If there was no you

If you were my boat in the deep blue sea
I'd probably sink you down
I know I should have thanked you for carrying me
But for you I would happily drown

All along your way
The darkest night, the longest day
I know what to say to make you laugh

And nothing you could do
Could make me turn my back on you
When you're looking for a fight I'm your man
When you need a friend you got my hand

What I really mean, what I'm trying hard to say is that
I'm counting on you and you got me too
My secrets aren't safe, I'm singing out of tune
If there was no you, if there was no you

All along your way
The darkest night, the longest day
I know what to say to make you laugh

And nothing you could do
Could make me turn my back on you
When you're looking for a fight I'm your man

When you need a friend you got my hand
When you need a friend you got my hand
You got my hand

Visit Brandi Carlile page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.