I can't believe you be coming around the clock with that same old...

I got plans to drive past you, to make you regret, yeah
And why the hell you be parked with your volume, turned up all the way

I'm not a phantom, you're picking your snare, your courage is in jeopardy

I got pretty big songs, pretty big songs, yeah, yeah
I got speakers and sounds, bigger than dolls, yeah,
yeah

... that, in the beat here, beat down man, yeah, yeah
I won't tell you radio go away

And when the music's gone, there be no more songs,
no more songs

When the party's broke, I said I still live on, still live on
And when the music's gone, there be no more tone, no more tone

When the spell is broke and that I have told, I still got getaway

You hear me from a block away, I still got getaway Check it, I got the feeling I'ma hurt your feelings when you hear my system

Check it, so loud my surround sound will take no victims

I'm not a phantom, you're picking your snare, your
courage is in jeopardy

I got pretty big songs, pretty big songs, yeah, yeah
I got speakers and sounds, bigger than dolls, yeah,
yeah

... that, in the beat here, beat down man, yeah, yeah

I won't tell you radio go away

And when the music's gone, there be no more songs,
no more songs

And when the music's gone, there be no more tone, no
more tone

getaway

You hear me from a block away, I still got getaway
Baby can you hear me now, can you hear me now?
Baby can you hear me now, can you hear me now?

I'm like the bass and the trunk if you want I can... the way Baby just tell me where you're at and I'm on my way
No matter how far, we could push cruise patrol Any way you want, tell me where you want... let's go

And when the music's gone, there be no more songs,
no more songs
And when the music's gone, there be no more tone, no
more tone
getaway
Get over, you hear me from a block away, I still got getaway.
