There's a man, there's a man down
He was fighting on the frontline just protect him
Surrender
There's a man there's a man down
He put his heart on the line he didn't care
If she heard him
There's a man down, dying right now
Talk about it
Why would he put his whole life down?
Cos a man, any man will go to war for love
Why can we curse?
Just make love

(Chorus)

Casualties of love everywhere
Spend enough I know you round there
Got to get together make love
And not war baby
Maybe we can all just make love
And not war baby
Say goodbye in fighting for love

There's a man never stands down
He keeps fighting cos he's mad
And he keeps losing the battle
There's a man there's a man down
He's got the MO and he's using it

Don't care if he's hurting (yeh)
There's a man down dying right now
Talk about it
Why would he put his whole life down
Any man would go to war for love
Why can we curse?
Just make love

(Chorus x2)

Casualties of love everywhere
Spend enough I know you round there
Got to get together make love
And not war baby
Maybe we can all just make love

And not war baby
Say goodbye in fighting for love

We can call the troops back home
Becos you know they too far gone
What if love was never war?
We never heard u anymore
Fighting for...

(Chorus)
