Verse 1:

I can't see ya... but I can feel ya... in the light as if you're right there...

And I remember... back in December... you left me

PreHook:

Seems like yesterday we were one...

Now there's no shoulder to lean on...

You're never comin' back, your love's so far gone...

Forever I'm alone...

Hook:

It was a silent night... another lonely night and...

me, ah... I can't believe you left me, oh no...

me, ah... I can't believe you left me, oh no...

It was a silent night... another lonely night and...

me, ah... I can't believe you left me, oh no...

Verse 2:

Oh no...

I wish this fly... on this wall...

Would tell me where did we go wrong....

Is there a bigger picture... that my eyes didn't capture?...

Or was it that I love too strong?...
