I'm feeling things I can't explain inside me
It started when I looked into your eyes
Searched all my life to find a heart as pure as mine
It's hard to believe it's taken so long for me to find you

This must be love that I'm feeling inside
You're the one I trust
I could never give this up
You mean everything to me
Touched my heart and soul deeply

I really feel like this has been worth waiting for
This experience is all I need and more
The way you listen to me
Let's me now how much you care

And now I'm falling for you
And now I know you are the one
There were times I gave up
Gave up on everything

I never found someone who cared for me (?)
My life is better cause now you're here with me
I cherish the days so this must be love

This must be love that I'm feeling inside
You're the one I trust
I could never give this up
You mean everything to me
Touched my heart and soul deeply

Day and night I'm thinking about you
All I do I do it for you
You've become a part of me
Promise me you'll stay
For the first time I know dreams come true
Cannot believe that it is you
It's so overwhelming
Can't fight this feeling and you can't deny

This must be love that I'm feeling inside
You're the one I trust

I could never give this up
You mean everything to me
Touched my heart and soul deeply (2x)
