How many times did I ask why are you with him?
How many times did I beg you to run away?

How many times did he tell you it wont happen again?
And how many times did it happen the very next day?

And now I'm asking why didn't you listen to me?
Why didn't I do something though you said please just
let it be?
Why did I let him take you from me?
The choices we make,
To right the mistakes;
Too little too late

What did I say the very first time it happened?
I said where is he now and what do you want me to do?

Why did tell me no? Why were you protecting him?
When all I was trying to do was protect you?

And now I'm asking why didn't you listen to me?
Why didn't I do something though you said please just
let it be?
Why did I let him take you from me?
The choices we make,
To right the mistakes;
Too little to late

And I just cant help feeling,
Feeling like il let you down.
Your knight in shinning armour;
Protecting you from harm,
Yeah right, if that were true
You'd still be around

Why didn't you listen to me?
Why didn't I do something though you said please just
let it be?
Why did I let him take you from me?
The choices we make,
To right the mistakes;

Too little to late

Why didn't you listen to me?
Why didn't I do something though you said please just
let it be?
Why did I let him take you from me?
The choices we make,
To right the mistakes;
Too little to late

Too little too late.
