The night was calm, the lights were down
We heard no sound
We looked like angels

You said that something wasn't right
Your hands were cold
You started shaking

But I don't know
What's going on
If you've been bad
What you've done wrong

And you feel ashamed
Don't feel ashamed
And you feel ashamed
Don't feel ashamed
And you feel ashamed
But don't feel ashamed

You looked at me, your lips were shy
No way to hide
How you were feeling

I thought I heard you say my name
You closed your eyes
And started crying
