"Who Stole The Show"

Who stole the show?
I did, like a true virtuoso
Took you to the places they dare not go
Leading like I do, follow [~~~]
You just can't get enough of it
Oh, my control
Who stole the show?
The floor moving out from underneath your feet
A new kind of challenge they can not beat
Our minds crystal clear, no one coming near
Hard to the core, high to the low
You know the rest, not even close
Who stole the show?
We did you know!
Serve them on a plate just the way you like
Now you can't comprehend
The miracles we perform when we're on the sight
Who stole the show?
We did you know!
