Carry you up in my arms
I hear you sing yourself to sleep
The sky opens up over your room
You sail into your moonlight dreams

So much more than we can see
So much more than we can see

All we are and all we need is
All we are and all we need is
All we are is all we need to be

Grateful, oh grateful
(All we are and all we need is)
(All we are and all we need is)
Grateful, oh grateful
(All we are and all we need is)
(All we are and all we need)

I play this guitar, sing these songs
It changes me, instantly, love is too simple a word
For here comes the sun in the morning

Suddenly happiness comes rolling out from inside me

All we are and all we need is
All we are and all we need is
All we are is all we need to be

Grateful, oh grateful
(All we are and all we need is)
(All we are and all we need is)
Grateful, oh grateful
(All we are and all we need is)
(All we are and all we need)

Carry you up in my arms
I hear you sing yourself to sleep
The sky opens up over your room
Sail into your moonlight dreams

So much more than we can see

So much more than we can see

All we are and all we need is
All we are and all we need is
All we are is all we need to be

Grateful, oh grateful
(All we are and all we need is)
(All we are and all we need is)
Grateful, oh grateful
(All we are is all we need to be)
