Head in the clouds you never touch the ground
You're in such a hurry you might lose what you've found
In an out of town, time for you to settle down
Stand back take a look around you
You're running from the pressures of the restless world
Hush for a moment, baby, just be still

Here now
Spend a minute next to me
Slow down
Take the time to let it be
I wanna show you there's no place better than here
right now

Meet me where icebergs melt in the sun
(Ooh)
Let all the ties that bound you come undone
(Ooh)
Open up you're alive I miss the fire in your eyes
Give a sign, tell me that you want me
When your overwhelming life becomes too much
(Ooh)
Take another breath and you will see (Ooh)

Here now
Spend a minute next to me
Slow down
Take the time to let it be
I wanna show you there's no place better than here
Here right now

Remember how we laugh and carry on (Carry on)
Long before the madness had begun
(Ehh)

Here now
Spend a minute next to me

Slow down
Take the time to let it be
I wanna show you there's no place better than here

Here now
Spend a minute next to me
Slow down
Take the time to let it be
I wanna show you there's no place better than here
