You were standing like a statue in the light
And it looked like perfection in my eyes
When you spoke I staggered from the glow once I touched
I never could let go , oh ,oh,oh
This is what I've waited for
Ooooh, everything I wanted
Ooooh,everything I wanted, for a while

So we whispered every secret we could tell
And we painted lovely pictures of ourselves
Thoug we hid the parts we did not want to know
As the strenght of our illusions took control
Oh, oh, oh, this is what I waited for
Ooooh, everything I wanted
Ooooh, everything I wanted, for a while

I never know if my heart tells lies
Caught in a feeling
I just can't fight
First I go up warning
Then I come back down
Till we come back around

Oh, oh, oh, this is what I've waited for
Ooooh, everything I wanted
Ooooh, everything I wanted...
