You're headin' out on the town
To the place where you're always seen
Your blue-veined, they cast you out
Like the way things should have been

I said I'll tell you something, that i don't Mind
I spend my night, well I'm not alone
I got this woman, she's so fine
She keeps me warm late at night

I know my life is meant to be
Not alone

I need your love like a blind dog
I need your time like a push to shove
I need your love like a blind dog
I need your time like a push to shove

Your life is spent your chips are down
You start to crawl and then you drowned
You lose your grip, you'll start to slip
You can't get up, oh to be bad babe

I know my life is meant to be
Not alone

You're laying there, you look so sad
The things you do, they made me oh, so mad
Well i can't help you, I wish I truly could
But that's okay cuz I keep on keepin' on

I spin my wheels, oh so fast
I shoot down that line
Well here I go
Oh, don't hold back
