I stand in the alley ways
I watch her move so sweet
She makes my jaw real tight, yes
I'm feeling hungry
I'm ready to eat
I go

My friends, they're all so jealous
See I've got this real fine thing
She makes the sweetest love boys
She makes it burn
She don't make it sting

I go
Don't you know you've got to love her so
This damn woman she's out of control
She wants it hard, she needs it fast
She's the best damn thing so don't turn my back

Watch her walk, watch her talk
Watch her slide, whose tonight
Watch her walk, watch her talk
Watch her slide

My time has finally come, yes
She takes me way up stairs
She's in to thick black leather
I'll tell you something
I've got to beware
