Ooh yeah
Whoa

Could you quit playing games with me?
Why is it so hard to believe?
Burn all the pictures that you have
And tear our memories in half
But I know
And you know
I'm too good for you

So breakaway
And don't look back
Cause what we had it never truly mattered
And now
I'm finding time
For someone else

We both know how the story goes
Shut up, don't give me one more rose
And now you're paying the price of me
And you should take me seriously
Cause I know
And you know
I'm too good for you

So breakaway
And don't look back
Cause what we had it never truly mattered
And now
I'm finding time
For someone else

Cause I'm okay
And won't look back
Cause here and now I'm lost inside this moment
And now
I found the strength
To free myself

And now you're making all new mistakes
And saying sorry doesn't fix anything

So breakaway
And don't look back
Cause what we had it never truly mattered
And now
I'm finding time
For someone else

Cause I'm okay
And won't look back
Cause here and now I'm lost inside this moment
And now
I found the strength
To free myself

So breakaway
And don't look back
Cause what we had it never truly mattered
And now
I'm finding time
For someone else

Now
I'm finding time
For someone else
To breakaway
