Do you remember the way you felt about me
Do you remember all the things you said
And the way you used to look at me
Are like pictures running through my head
Oh baby do you remember
'Cause I can never forget

It seemed so easy for you to leave it all behind Guess there's no use it trying 'cause you just don't care
Oh but I thought I saw the love in your eyes
But I guess you weren't looking at me
Do you have all you want now
And will you ever forget

All the time you said you loved me
All the time you said you cared
Tell me what am I gonna do with all the time
And all the time we spent together
All the time it was falling apart
Tell me what am I gonna do
What am I gonna do
With all the time

Do you remember the way you used to hold me
Who would've ever have thought that it could fade away

But no matter how hard I try
All I feel from you is goodbye
Oh hope you have all you want now
And will you ever forget

All the time you said you loved me
All the time you said you cared
Tell me what am I gonna do with all the time
And all the time we spent together
All the time it was falling apart
Tell me what am I gonna do
What am I gonna do
With all the time

Wherever you were baby oh that's where I stood
I would've done anything for you baby
Oh why'd you have to leave me baby
When everything was just so good

All the time you said you loved me
All the time you said you cared
Tell me what am I gonna do with all the time
And all the time we spent together
All the time it was falling apart
Tell me what am I gonna do
What am I gonna do
With all the time
