Don't stand there on your pride
And tell me everything's alright 'cause
I don't wanna be the one
To waste your time
Don't think that you're the only guy
Who comes around
When my world falls down
'Cause sometimes the silence is too loud

But baby I would've walked the world to know you
I would've lied through my eyes to show you

But I swear to God I will walk away
I swear to heaven above nothing will stand in my way
If you don't show me the love just to believe all the things you say baby
I swear to God I will walk away

God knows I tried so hard
Just to stay right here
Just to face my fears when
The whole world just makes me wanna die
It's so strange the way you are
The way you care
You make me wanna stay
Right here yeah -yeah oh

But baby I would've walked the world to know you

I would've lied through my eyes to show you

But I swear to God I will walk away
I swear to heaven above nothing will stand in my way
If you don't show me the love just to believe all the things you say baby
I swear to God I will walk away

And if we're only us for a while Yeah if it's just you and me if I could make it worth your while
And baby for all the times that you made me cry
If I was ever without you I would fall apart inside yeah

But baby I would've walked the world to know you
I would've lied through my eyes to show you

But I swear to God I will walk away
I swear to heaven above nothing will stand in my way
If you don't show me the love just to believe all the things you say baby
I swear to God I will walk away
