The thought never crossed my mind
That someday I could lose you
Lose you to what's below
So don't let go
Don't ever look down
Nothing else matters
Except the time we have now
Don't let go
Don't look down
NOTHING MATTERS

So what can I do to try and help you
Too far too gone too bring you back to me
Head up high, hold on tight, there's hope
There's hope IN THESE HANDS
Only hope will keep this alive
ONLY THE STRONG WILL SURVIVE

Another lesson in life for me
Now I know I can only hold on for so long
I'm reaching out to the that was always there
I'm reaching out but your hand is nowhere TO BE FOUND

Now there's nothing I can do to try and help you
Too far too gone too bring you back to me
Head up high, hold on tight, there's hope

Today is just one of those days
You just never WISH FOR
I thought you would always be there
I thought you would always be here
But now I know
Nothing ever STAYS THE SAME
We slowly fade away
