"Better Off"

It's been a long time without you
But now I realize it's true
I'd better off being without you
With out you
Now I know
You'll carry on
Without the pain
You've got a lie
I've got myself to blame
I'd better off being without you
I'd better off being without you

Now I'd alone now I can see

I'll carry on knowing the pain
Knowing what could have been
I might not be the same
Still I know

I'd better off being without you
I'd better off being without you

Now I'd alone now I can see

I'd better off being without you
