Hold still

All of my life
All of my time
I don't wanna come back around tonight
And all that I need
Is serenity
I don't wanna feel your new disease

The natural life
You're born, you die
The natural life
You're wrong, you're right
The natural life
You're born, you die
The natural life's a lie

All of my lies
Swallow your pride
I don't wanna come back around tonight
And all that I need
Is serenity
I don't wanna feel your new disease
The natural life
You're born, you die
The natural life
You're wrong, you're right
The natural life
You're born, you die
The natural life's a lie

Right
You're right

When you're right
I can never lie
Let me go
Try to find a home
An' I can't wait
Try to stay awake
Dead inside
Bothered by the lie

When you're wrong

The natural life

You're born, you die

The natural life

You're wrong, you're right

The natural life

You're born, you die

The natural life's a lie

A lie

Lie
