The day has come to an end
The sun is over my head
My polyamorous friend
Got me in a mess of trouble again

So...

Just when you think that you're alright
I'm calling out from the inside
I never heard anyone
I never listened at all

They've come to get me again
The cloud is over my head
My polyamorous friend
Got me in a mess of trouble again

So...

Just when you think that you're alright
I'm calling out from the inside
I never hurt anyone
I never listen at all

Just stay away from the white line
I'd say your worst side's your best side
I never heard anyone
I never listen at all

Well, how do you know?
Well, how do you know?
Well, how do you know?
Well, how do you know?

Just when you think that you're alright
I'm calling out from the inside
I never heard anyone
I never listen at all

Just stay away from the white line

I'd say your worst side's your best side
I never heard anyone
I never listen at all
