I've never felt so alone
When everyone's around
Another body in the sea
I'm lost in the crowd

Hold on
Don't be swept away
They'll come and go
But the truth never fades

I always knew you were a heartless liar
At least you lie with sincerity

Why did I let you set fire to my heart?

I gave you everything I had
I guess it's not enough

You've made your choice
I hope it loves you back
I've given up
I'll drown in my despair

Memoirs of the love sick
Your memories are haunting me to the grave
Is this what you call love?
