This is the way it starts,
And we know all too well we can,
Cuz we know too well that when there's feelings involved,
Someones gonna end up crying like before,
We could close our eyes,
Create a self explained answer for the people involved,
I know that we could make it,
And I know that you're not shaking,

Oh no I think we're losing control,
But I think it feels right unless I'm losing all emotion,
I'm going back to bed with the thought of you
And I'm staring at your picture and I want you by my

I think you're looking so damn cute,
The way you move is like I'm running out of breathe,
And now you're saying believe me (I miss you more than before),
Why don't you look at what you do to me,
And now I'm looking around and around,
For something that could give me a clue,
To mention I'm staying oh (cant get you out of my head),

Why don't you look at what you do to me

Oh no I think we're losing control,
But I think it feels right unless I'm losing all emotion,
I'm going back to bed with the thought of you
And I'm staring at your picture and I want you by my side

so right

Oh no I think we're losing control,
But I think it feels right unless I'm losing all emotion,
I'm going back to bed with the thought of you

And I'm staring at your picture and I want you by my

Oh no I think we're losing control,
But I think it feels right unless I'm losing all emotion,
I'm going back to bed with the thought of you
And I'm staring at your picture and I want you by my sid
