About this time of day, I start to wonder about this dream we chase. You and me, now. Well I can never make you happy so I shoudn't even try. I'll only make you suffer Looks like we should kiss this dream away.
Looks like we should kiss this dream away. Well, I never make you happy so I shoudn't even try I'll only make you suffer Looks like we should kiss this dream away. I telling you now, telling you now, only a fool would trust me Only a fool would trust me. Only a fool would trust me Only a fool would trust me. I can see it in your eyes Proving my worst fears. I can see I'm hurting you..... I warn you now, I'm obsessive and I'm jealous, I've a need for love That's all I ever think about. But day by day and dream by dream my taste for belongingness is being Choked be distrust and fear.
