There's a rose on the bed
A letter that I wrote what you mean to me
Words I wished I'd said,
Were still in my head, now I pray you'd see

I don't know how to tell you that I miss you, baby
I struggle with the words sometimes
But in my heart, I know you'll find

Chorus:

I know, you know
Our souls will be together till the end of time
You know, I know
Your love is gonna meet me on the other side
As sure as the angels come down and take my breath
away
I love you'd be the last thing I'd ever say

I'd ever say...

You walked beside me,
You stood by me and got me through my darkest times
And now I close my eyes
And visualize your face for the last time

I didn't know how to tell you that I loved you baby
I struggle with the words sometimes
But in my heart, I know you'll find

Chorus:

I know, you know
Our souls will be together till the end of time
You know, I know
Your love is gonna meet me on the other side
As sure as the angels come down and take my breath
I love you'd be the last thing I'd ever say

I never fell in love,
No one ever touched me like this before
You opened my eyes
Made me realize something worth living for

Solo (guitar and piano)

What if fate took you from me
Before I got to let you know
You're the one thing in my life worth dying for
If the world fell apart,
I know in my heart
I know would never change
If the devil himself
Tried to raise hell's bells
I know it would be in vain
If the heavens come down
Let 'em fall to the ground
Let 'em take my breath away
I love you'd be the last thing I'd ever say
