I'm looking for a way to create heaven on earth
And I'm looking for a way to invent the pain free birth
Yes I know that I've set my stakes very high,
don't ask me how, ask me why?
I'm not settling for an ordinary life.

I'm looking for a way to become as tall as the trees
And I'm looking for a way to come and go like the breeze
Yes I know that this is just a crazy dream,
don't ask me how, ask me why?
I'm not settling for an ordinary life.

Watch me run! Catch me if you can
See me fly; to an all time high
Don't waste my time, tell me I don't know the facts
Life's a one way trip, we don't get to come back!

I'm looking for a way to stop war in their tracks
And I'm looking for a way not to have to look back
Yes I know that I've set my stakes very high,
don't ask me how, ask me why?
I'm not settling for the ordinary life.

Watch me run! Catch me if you can
See me fly; to an all time high
Don't waste my time, tell me I don't know the facts
Life's a one way trip, we don't get to come back!
Whether you do nothing with your life
Or take chances and aim high
I don't mean to sound morbid
But you're still gonna die
That's why
There's no point in taking second prize
That's why
You shouldn't live
Just an Ordinary Life

I'm looking for a way to see good in all things
And I'm looking for a way to always win
Yes I know that this is just a crazy dream,
don't ask me how, ask me why?

I'm not settling for an ordinary life.

Watch me run! Catch me if you can
See me fly; to an all time high
Don't waste my time, tell me I don't know the facts
Life's a one way trip, we don't get to come back!

Watch me run! Catch me if you can See me fly
!!
I'm not settling for the Ordinary Life
