shes made me, some kind of laughing stock because I dance to disco, and I listen to rock she made fun, of the way I dress because I drink alot, and so I dress to impress.

So I ask myself can I see myself with her if I wanted her.
I ask myself can I really forgive her if she begs me to Its some what revenge, thats childish so childish.

I remember when, she was more easily lead to the cinema and the local cafe don't know what I was really thinking eventually it did make a bit more sense.
