Im here, what did you say?
Is it breaking any hearts in the month of May
My drinking pals
Are all the same
Why drink so long, to get drunk once again
And I like to say I will
But I will not pay the bill
And take you some place new, so I can

I think I better drink right now
Before I feel any sober
I think I better drink right now
Im falling deeper and deeper
Somebody better show them how
How to drink from a pint glass
Think I better drink right now

Im drunk, so please explain
Why my open arms are wrapped round your waist?
YouÂ're a little more careful with what you drink
(I know it shows)
But if I loose the plot
Just give me a chance to think
Now weÂ're walking in our arms
So I protect you from the harm
And feel my inside coming up, and I know

I think I better drink right now
Before I feel any sober
I think I better drink right now
Im falling deeper and deeper
Somebody better show them how
How to drink from a pint glass
Think I better drink right now

I never know what I say
When I start feeling like this today
I see youÂ've got a well nice smile
But IÂ'm going down the wrong track, arenÂ't I
I may never know why
Why I had so many pints that night
If I stand, I should start to explain

I couldn't dare try and lose you this way
I think I better drink right now
Before I feel any sober
I think I better drink right now
I'm falling deeper and deeper
Somebody better show them how
How to drink from a pint glass
Think I better drink right now

Yes I will
I think I better drink right now
I'm falling deeper and deeper
Somebody better show them how
How to drink from a pint glass
Think I better drink right now
