Im standing on my own
Im playing in the park
I thought that was the thing to do
Theres nothing but delays
No paths to lead the way
I'm thinking that i'm like you isn't anyone gonna tell me
Wont somebody show me the way

It's the same old night
Trying to see if your alright
Can't you, try to be just like someone brand new
I jus know who you are, and I'm just, just like you
Just like you hmm hmm

Im sitting in my place
I really like your face
Is there anybody else we know
Cause everythin you say
And nothing seems okay
And neither of us likes to be alone

isn't anyone gonna tell us
Won't somebody show me the way

It's the same old night
Phoning to hear your alright
Can't you, try to be just like someone else brand new
I jus know who you are, and I'm just, Just like you

Ohh, why is everythin I do confusing
Maybe I'm just out of this mind

It's the same old night
Trying to see if your alright
Can't you, try to be just like someone brand new
I jus know who you are, and I'm just, just like you
Just like you

I'm like you
Can't you, try to be just like someone else brand new
I jus know who you are, and I'm just, just like you

Can't you, try to be just like someone else brand new
I jus know who you are, and I'm just, just like you
I'm like you
Just like you
