she hates us, we hate her she comes from a country we New Zealand, her home land famous for the Kiwi bird. and we pray, for when she's not taking up the lesson all we want is some good grades (is that too much to ask)
we could cope well on our own.

if I could, then I would
I'll go and teach the class I.T
I think I'll do a better... job then she ever could.

and maybe, I'll find out the reasons why she hates the lads is it cause, she's upset or is it more like she's a sexist bh if things were completely different so why do you hate us so much

if I could, then I would
I'll go and teach the class I.T
I think I'll do a better...
job then she ever could.
wonder where she got,
got her teachin from properly

I know how, just quite how how hard it may be to teach us thats no excuss, to move us in your mind, Robin did so much better

if I could, then I would
I'll go and teach the class I.T
I know I'll do a better... job then she ever could.

if I could get good grades, I'll be ... happy she knows nothing about I.T.

Â'she knows nothing about teachingÂ'
