That caravan in your life
Im the child like my parents ever had
Start the thoughts thatÂ're in your mind
This place impressive
All you here, just let me say
I just know that you all came
You donÂ't believe me anymore
Est-tu en acts in a perfect world
This is you singing
You thought you were being
Someone you thought you did know well
This is you singing
You thought you were being
Someone you thought you did know well
But now its all over
Â'The Never-ending,Â' never-ending
The world is full of everything you see
Something just like you and me
But as her I had a choice
Depending on my tone of voice
So donÂ't forget and donÂ't pretend
Were all the same like in the end
You had sex in a different light
Though the day and in the night
This is you singing
You thought you were being
Someone you thought you did know well
This is you singing
You thought you were being
Someone you thought you did know well
But now its all over
Â'The Never-ending,Â' never-ending
But now its all over
Â'The Never-ending,Â' never-ending
