I didn't think you knew me didn't think that there was a you and I I was lying on my bed, 'before'
I never ever told you
I didn't know what to do I needed to explain, 'cast all'

And I tried I tried to be you but I tried

When I sit to talk to
To someone else who's just like you It's always me to worse it, 'for more'

And I tried I tried to be you ooo ooo
And I tried, yea yea yea I tried

Everyday just seemed a lie, a lie that I betrayed to us when we torn and all I know the feelings sure, sure that I believe in you more and I let you down, I let you down the days that I was wrong . . .

But I tried I tried to be you
And I tried ye yea yeah ooo ooo
I tried, tried to be you ooo
I tried, ye yea yeah its True.
