I, had a choice
a choice that I'll change my life what to now choose I can't think what's right now a ray of hope, that will see me through gimmie a room with a shower and I'll be happy (for a while)

I can't regret this chance of a life time gonna get some action, if it takes all night Nothing really matters, if the feelings are alright simply got to think about this more

Come on mother, cause that's not an answer
I give it all if that's what it takes University Choices
If I stay there, I won't be so nervous
If I get away, it's more of a service University Choices ... which is the right one

I, shunt regret living so far away from home and I, this Uni two of a kind see I don't know which will be more kind

I can't decide on the chance of the life time gonna find myself some sort of a job doesn't matter as long as I get mine... all the money that's paying for my shower simply doesn't feel like this at all

Come on mother, cause that's not an answer
I'll give it all, if that's what it takes though University Choices
I take it all to help me get through all the lonely nights that I'll have to cope with University Choices ... which is the right one

Birmingham is the one chance of a new life West Herts has the people I once admired
But nothing really matters when the course is diced
Simply got to think about this more

Simply got to thins about this more, that's right!
