She's all in my head like, and there's nothing I do about it. All I know is that it feels right, Oh.

And as soon as I touch down, I'm coming right home to you. Gotta be with you tonight.

Light the candles on the fireplace, crystal glasses filled with chardonnay, smell the scent of you off in the air, it's leading me straight to where you are. I'm just going to follow your heart.

Where ever you are I know there's love. I just wanna, wanna fall deep in it. Love with no limits, yeah.

Where ever you are I know there's love. I just wanna, wanna fall deep in it. Love with no limits, yeah.

Yeah, Love with no limits, yeah. No limits.

Re-arrange the course of time. I'm going to help you forget your past, keep your eyes right on me.

You won't have to look that deep to find me. Stay up here where you can breath, this is where you find ecstasy, yeah, yeah.

Light the candles on the fireplace, crystal glasses filled with chardonnay, smell the scent of you off in the air, it's leading me straight to where you are. I'm just going to follow your heart.

Where ever you are I know there's love. I just wanna, wanna fall deep in it. Love with no limits, yeah.

Where ever you are I know there's love. I just wanna, wanna fall deep in it. Love with no limits, yeah.

Where ever you are I know there's love. I just wanna, wanna fall deep in it. Love with no limits, yeah.

Where ever you are I know there's love. I just wanna, wanna fall deep in it. Love with no limits, yeah.

I wanna take the sun, the moon, the stars put them all in your hand. Just so you understand, baby I'm all about you. Do what your heart tells you to do, and just open up, let me in, let me inside, yeah, yeah, yeah...

Yeah.

Yeah, aww. I wanna fall, wanna fall, I know there's Love.

Where ever you are I know there's love. I just wanna, wanna fall deep in it. Love with no limits, yeah.

Where ever you are I know there's love. I just wanna, wanna fall deep in it. Love with no limits, yeah.

Love with no limits, yeah.

Love with no limits, yeah.
Limits no, limits no .... Limits no, no, aww
