Oooh yea

Like a thief in the night, you came and took what was mine

i was willing, i wanted to give it

So far gone, so depending Moving fast my head was spinning, we became like two in one

There was no me without you baby, so intense it got so crazy

I believe what you told me, i believe what you told me

Every word, every word, i was holding onto that

I believe what you told me, i believe what you sold me

Every word, every word, i was holding onto that

And you're still here, yes you're still here

And everything you said was true, evrything you promised, everything you said would be

And you're still here, yes you're still here

And i always believed, you said you'd give me the world and you gave it all to me

They said it was a big mistake, get out now before it's too late

I didn't care what anyone said, you and me went full steam ahead

I don't regret the choice i made, knew what i felt i wasn't afraid

I knew i had to risk it, no turning back too deep in it ooooh yea

(hey)

Every word (ooh) , every word (yea) i was holding onto that

I believe what you told me, i believe what you sold me

Every word, every word, i was holding onto that

And you're still here, yes you're still here

And you're still here, yes you're still here

And i always believed, you said you'd give me the world and you gave it all to me

And you're still here, yes you're still here

And everything you said was true, evrything you

And you're still here, yes you're still here
And i always believed, you said you'd give me the world and you gave it all to me
To me, to me, to me
Gave it all to me, to me, all to me
You said you'd give me the world
And you're still here, yes you're still here
And everything you said was true, evrything you
And you're still here, yes you're still here
And i always believed, you said you'd give me the world and you gave it all
And you're still here, yes you're still here
Oh and everything you said was true, evrything you promised, everything you said would be
And you're still here, you're still here I'll always belive, you said you'd give me the world and you gave it all ohhhhhh yaaa.
