Don't ask me what's in my head, don't pretend like you give a shit.

Don't ask me why I look so sad, cause I'll be happy
when your fucking dead.

Who the hell do you think you fool? can these games
fucking end?

And what the hell do you think you gain, pretending that we're friends?

I haven't figured out your fucking cause, but it's not genuine.

And when the truth comes out in the end, I think I'll cut off your head.

And I'll be fucking happy, when your fucking dead, and I'll fucking smile, when your fucking dead
