I'm sick of all your rules
They're so man made
You treat them all like fools
You put my name to shame
I'm everything you're not
I give them love
My ways you have forgot
You put yourselves above

I'll testify
It's time to see Religion die
The truth can't lie
It's time to see Religion die
Who cares?
Who's right?
It's time to see Religion die
I'll crush the fight
It's time to see Religion die

My Church is not inside
You're building walls
On Sundays you all hide
While the world just falls
Now go into the world
And destroy hell
You have authority
Use it for the kill

Children come
Away with me
I want you all
To be mine
I am
Taking back what's mine, and You've killed too much time with Pointing all your fingers at your kids that's why they're lost
Try to look deep in their eyes
You will see suicide
Blame it on yourself cuz no one else will pay your price
Your price
Die just

Die Religion

Do not be afraid
Religion is man made
Everything is OK
The rules have just been changed
