Early in the morning
I went out walking in the rain
Hoping it would cleanse me
Of this deep and awful pain
I'm feeling

Free and easy
Feeling
Free and easy while i can
Cause i've got no expectations
Of loving anyone again

Half-way through the evening
Just before you ran away
I could tell that you were leaving
But the words you could not say
You're feeling

Free and easy
Feeling
Free and easy while you can
Cause you've got no expectations
Loving anyone again
