Call me old fashioned but I'd really like to Know you some more, find out what's under
The skin of this thing I adore.
We've been running in circles
And it's skin talks to skin
And we end up more in trouble
Than the place where we begin.
Yeah I've been a physical fool
Once too often before
Tell me I'm wrong there's so much I don't Know but what's wrong with taking it slow.

Oh how long must I keep dreaming
Of finding someone to believe in
A love that will make me feel strong
I don't need anymore heartache
'Cause how much can one hungry heart take
Before the right one comes along

Call me old fashioned but I really like the Way that you move, and I'd love a night
Where for once there was nothing to prove
Two people together feeling their way
Through this world, not in a hurry just
Letting the mystery unfurl.
Tell me I'm wrong there's so much I don't Know but I don't know where else to go.

Oh how long must I keep dreaming
Of finding someone to believe in
A love that will make me feel strong
I don't need anymore heartache
'Cause how much can one hungry heart take
Before the right one comes along
'Cause that's where I need to belong,
Old fashioned, that's where I need to belong,
Old fashioned, that's where I Wanna belong?
