You know everytime I wake up
With you by my side
And just thinking of you makes it right
Everytime.

One smile my way you look too good to be true
Twice shy they say and I'll end up losing you
But when you meet the one
You've got to seize the moment
I bless the day that I found you

You know everytime I wake up
With you by my side
And then everytime I look in your eyes
I know everytime I fall down
You'll pick me up
And just thinking of you makes it right
Everytime

All change these days (we're so connected)
'Cause now I'm thinking of two Life is so strange no one makes me feel so good
'Cause when you meet the one
You've got to seize the moment
I bless the day that I found you?

You know everytime I wake up
With you by my side
And then everytime I look in your eyes
I know everytime that I fall down
You'll pick me up
And just thinking of you makes it right
Everytime

Remember the winters I slept alone for too long
Then came Summer
Now I know where I belong?

You know everytime I wake up
With you by my side
And then everytime I look in your eyes

I know everytime that I fall down
You'll pick me up
And just thinking of you makes it right
Everytime?Everytime
