Why Don't We Try Again
(May)

Drums and Percussion - Cozy Powell
Additional Recording - David Richards

After the storm there's the dead of night
It seems there's no way back for me
So little comfort in my little bed
To know that it had to be

And now I miss you in so many ways
You know I miss you for so many lonely days
Why don't we try again
In the dark there's a desert flower
It blooms when no one sees

Our love was stronger than history
Our love will never cease to be
How can I live with you as a memory
You hold the best part of me

And now I miss you in so many ways
You know I miss you for so many lonely days
Why don't we try again

No use of me waiting by the telephone
You're gone, you ain't gonna ring

And now I miss you in so many ways
You know I miss you for so many lonely lonely days and nights

I know you miss me for so many lonely days
Why don't we try again
Why don't we try again
Why don't we try again
