A bit of earth, why does make me laugh?
A bit of world, it never part
A bit of universe, why doesn't make me cry?
Born to live in Mary's never heart

I'm just a finger with a song
I'm make them laugh to right them wrong
For just a singer with a bit of earth
I'm caught in between with a fading dream

A bit of earth, this never plan
A bit of world, this never chant
A bit of universe, oh, never be this heart
Born to live, another's hill and man

It's yours

I'm just a finger with a song
I'm make them laugh to right them wrong
For just a singer with a bit of earth
I'm caught in between with a fading dream

A bit of earth
A bit of earth
A bit of earth
A bit of earth
