It was a year long summer the women they sit sit here tonight time passin by so quickly but i continue to try
with no reason why
sometime again
it's like every end
i have to ask myself why

just like it's a lie to me time passin by so quickly for me to see aaaaaaaaahhhhhhhh

sometime again
it's like every end

they pass so quickly for me to see
