Spent my life inventing
Old school happy endings
When all I need is magic
Instead the truth appears
I guess that's how life goes
It sucks but that's how life goes

What have I become?
All work and no fun
When all I need is laughter
I'm wiping someone's tears
I guess that's how life goes
It sucks but that's how life goes

Forget of your plans
'Cause they are out of our hands

Wasted all those years
Hiding from my fears
And now I've learned to face it
You can't fight Mother Nature
Yeah, 'cause that's how life goes
Yeah it sucks, but that's how life goes

I accept that's how life goes
What's next nobody knows
Nobody knows
