Ooooooooooh

(If I...)

If I never show ya everything

Everything you need to see

(And if I...)

And if I never told ya

Just what you mean to me

(And if you have...)

And if you have a question after all that we've been through

That you're the air that I breathe

Every song that I sing

The reason for all I do

Remember what I'm telling you now

Baby it's you.

If you...

You are all I ever wanted.

I knew right from the start

You're all I've ever needed.

You came and opened up my heart

And how'd you managed to do the very thing

That many others could not do

I have sunshine on a cloudy day

And it's all because of you

If I never show ya everything

Everything you need to see

(And if I...) And if I never told ya

Just what you mean to me

(And if...) And if you have a question after all that we've been through

You're the air that I breathe

You're every song that I sing

The reason for all I do

You are my only

I never leave you lonely

There are so many words that I'd like to say

But they just might get in the way

So I gotta show you so that you can remember

Remember, remember, when I'm wiping happy tears from your eyes

I know you'll remember, remember, happy mornings turn to happy days and happy nights
I know you'll remember, remember, for those times that I might not be there.
I know you'll remember, remember,
when our children say I love you love you dad, it's true.
Yesterday, today, forever I know, baby it's you, it's you,
it's you
